

EDUCATION

- Monta Vista High School
- Penn State University Altoona
 - Freshman

De Anza College

- PreCalculus 1, Grade (A)
 - De-Anza Dual enrollment course
 - A college course that prepares students for Calculus by teaching a solid foundation in trigonometry and algebraic concepts.
- Spanish 2, Grade (A)
 - De-Anza Dual enrollment course
 - A college course that is an intermediate level of Spanish where a student learns vocabulary, grammar, and sentence skills.
- Intermediate Python, Grade (A)
 - De-Anza Dual enrollment course
 - A college course teaching a more advanced level of python by introducing more advanced concepts, techniques, and libraries.
- Environmental Science, Grade (A)
 - De-Anza Dual enrollment course
 - A college course teaching the environmental problems that occur in the modern day world. Also a study in the solutions being implemented and urges students to use creative thinking in order to formulate potential solutions to modern day environmental issues, covering topics of Biology and chemistry.

Certificates

- HarvardX Technology Entrepreneurship: Lab to Market Edx
 - This course taught me a systematic approach to technology entrepreneurship, how to generate new use scenarios by matching customer needs with promising technology seeds, how to align business and operating models, how to evaluate a technology for readiness and market fit, and how to position opportunities to secure funding.
- GTx Introduction to Object-Oriented Programming with Java I: Foundations and Syntax Basics
 - This course taught me an introduction to the Java programming language. It gave me an overview and history of Java, and knowledge of the language's basic syntax. At the end, I was able to develop interactive console programs with basic data processing and formatting capabilities.

LEADERSHIP & VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

- Volunteer work at Second Harvest (40 hours) (10th)
 - A popular food Donation center that donates to people in need.
 - Volunteer work included sorting rotten from fresh fruit, packing boxes of fruits, and stacking boxes of fruit on pallets.
- Activity Coordinator at Sfors 501c(3) (160 hours) (9th, 10th, 11th, 12th)
 - A non-profit organization, Students for Society, I recruit volunteers, oversee events, and plan fundraisers.

CLUB LEADERSHIP

- Computer Science Club (member)
 - A student led club that supports Computer Science Majors gain more knowledge on their major
 - Active member of the Computer Science Club that contributed to discussions
- Data Science Club (member)
 - A student led club that supports Data Science Majors gain more knowledge on their major
 - Participated in team project creation that was assigned in the Data Science Club
- Chess club (member)
 - A student led club that supports the growth of knowledge of people with a passion or hobby of chess
 - Active Chess player of 1 year

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Internship at Cupertino Chamber of Commerce (12th)
 - CCC Is a nonprofit company that supports food business owners.
 - I worked for twenty hours towards this internship. I supported the creation of a website that brings many food businesses in need of customers or advertising, to set up food trucks at community events that we organize in order to help these businesses thrive.

SKILLS

- Advanced Level Java

- I completed the AP Computer Science A course at Monta Vista High School and also received a 4 on the AP Computer Science A exam.
- Intermediate Level Python
 - I completed the Intermediate Python course at De Anza College by dual enrollment.

HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

- Chess
 - I play chess for four hours a week in my free time on Chess.com. I have also studied chess strategies in order to improve my decision making while playing chess.
- Gym
 - I began going to the gym on 1/10/24 and began dieting to improve my progress in building my physique on 9/1/24.
- Computer Science
 - I completed the AP Computer Science A course at Monta Vista High School and also received a 4 on the AP Computer Science A exam.
- Data Science
 - I created a Research paper named Evaluating the Efficacy of Various Sports Prediction Algorithms that utilized data science where I compared and analyzed different algorithms for their efficiency in predicting sports outcomes.